A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today’s readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches “from the River to the ends of the earth” (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

HOPE

Never deprive someone of hope;
it may be all they have.

—Anonymus

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the “Wife of Bath,” by this telling remark: “Husbands at church door she had five.” Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride’s home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren’t too closely related and give them some instruction. He would direct the groom to pay the bride’s family a dowry, and then announce the monetary amounts to the interested passersby. Only then would the guests enter the church for the wedding Mass, during which the bride and groom would hold lighted candles. The gradual move from home to church and the shift from the bride’s father to the priest’s authority helped to protect the freedom of brides who weren’t quite as confident as the Wife of Bath.

Stewardship

a way of life

“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Matthew 11:30

When we think of our call to be good stewards, and His request to generously share our time, talent and treasure, we may consider that God is asking too much of us. However, we need to remind ourselves that we are not “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we share with Him a small portion of what He has already given us.

Be An Angel And Our Parish can Be A Host Of Angels

San Pedro Church is starting a parish-based ministry to assist pregnant mothers in need.
This ministry; known nationally as *The Gabriel Project is approved and recommended by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

The Gabriel Project is a marvelous way to show our community that we Catholics see in the conception of each child a fresh expression of God's unfailing love.

There is no reason for any mother to feel that she is helpless and alone.
Learn how you can participate as an "angel" assigned to help a mom in need and how our parish community would, through prayer and action, assure Mom that she has our love and the love of Christ by providing her with spiritual, emotional and material support to help meet her needs. If you are interested in joining this ministry please contact the parish office.

Please Pray daily during "Hurricane Season"

"Eternal Father, Creator of all the world and all that is in it.
We beg you to spare the Florida Keys from storms and hurricanes.
If any should occur, we ask that they all go out to the sea where they may do the least amount of damage to anyone, We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen"

"I was in prison and you visited me"
(Matt 25:37).

An new Ministry is now forming to bring a Catholic presence to the Plantation key Detention Center and share the message of Christ's love, compassion and healing with its detainees. A prayer service will be held weekly in the facility, and volunteers are needed to help. If you are interested in finding out more about this opportunity to share and grown in your faith, please contact San Pedro Parish @ 305.852.5372.
