

San Pedro Catholic Parish

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Godparents Day!

San Pedro will celebrate Godparents Day on Sunday, July 28th with a special blessing for all Godparents!

Jesus, Our Peace

You probably know that the Jews in the first century did not particularly like the Gentiles. Paul addresses this problem by reminding them that Jesus died for all people, Jew and Gentile. And just as Jesus rose from the dead to a new life, the converts to Christianity were given a new life also. So why was that unity so hard to accept?

One reason is that as much as we complain about laws and regulations, many people like to live by them. Our decisions are simple if we have a law to cover each one. Hebrew Christians thought that they still had to keep the laws and regulations of the old covenant. There is nothing wrong with keeping the Ten Commandments: They are simply examples of Jesus' command to love God with all your being and to love your neighbor as yourself. So why not just do that?

The problem with only keeping commandments is that we can avoid doing evil things, but still not love God or my neighbor. For example, we can avoid using God's name in vain and kick back and relax on the Sabbath, but still not really love God. Fortunately for us, God loves us first; we need only respond to that love. And if we base all our other actions on that love, we will not break any commandments, or even worry about breaking them. We will have the peace that Paul mentions in our reading, the peace that makes us all one in Christ.

Support The ABCD

Faith is alive in parishes and schools, soup kitchens and counseling centers, on street corners, and in churches. It's lived through people of all backgrounds from every neighborhood. People everywhere come together to support one another. It is in the spirit that the ABCS exists: to bring support donations and build strong communities through faith and your generosity.

Visit www.sanpedroparish.org and click the WeShare icon, contact the San Pedro Parish office at 305.852.5372 or utilize the new Text-To-Give program by texting "Pedro" to 833-336-9083 to receive a link to contribute.

San Pedro Feast Day Fish Dinner A Success!

Father Brutus would like to thank everyone who helped make the Feast of San Pedro a success and for everyone who attended as well. We couldn't have done it without all of you!

Baptism Preparation Classes

If you are planning a Baptism, please be aware that Baptism Preparation Classes are offered every third Tuesday of the month at 5:00pm in the Church. Parents and Godparents must take the class and register for the Class ahead of time. Please call the office at 305-852-5372. Thank you!

Hurricane Prayer

Eternal Father, Creator of all the world and all that is in it. We beg you to spare the Florida Keys and the world from storms and hurricanes. If any should occur, we ask that they all go out to sea where they may do the least amount of damage to anyone. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Williams Hall Repairs

The Men's Club is looking for fishing gear or related items to sell to benefit the repairs of Williams Hall. Please contact Capt. Larry at 305-393-2993 or drop of at the Parish Office. Thank You!

From The Desk Of Father Ferry

Please call the Parish Office if you need a Priest to visit you at home for confession, counseling or any other need that you may have.
God Bless You!

The San Pedro mission was designated a parish in 1959, fittingly named for St. Peter, a fisherman and our parish thrives on the faith, participation and generosity of our many members. With open hearts we invite you to join us to celebrate mass.

FLORIDA IS PROTECTING LIFE
Myth vs Fact
DON'T LET THE FEARMONGERS LIE TO YOU

MYTH: Women can no longer receive healthcare.

FACT: Florida does not restrict lifesaving care for women – it promotes it. Florida hospitals and health care providers deliver some of the highest quality prenatal care in the nation. Florida also provides additional maternal health care resources through the Florida Department of Health.

MYTH: Women will be jailed as a result of the law.

FACT: Florida's criminal abortion penalties do not apply to pregnant women. Florida works to ensure the health and safety of mothers and babies by continuing to hold medical providers accountable to the standards of their oath to protect and ensure the health and well-being of their patients.

MYTH: Women won't even know they're pregnant.

FACT: Pregnancy tests have evolved substantially over the years. Trace levels of hCG can now be detected as early as eight days after ovulation.

MYTH: Women will be forced to give birth even if their life or health is in jeopardy.

FACT: Florida law includes exceptions to save the pregnant woman's life or avert a serious risk of substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function. Exceptions exist for pregnancies resulting from rape, incest, human trafficking, and for emergency medical procedures to save the life of the mother.

MYTH: Women in need of treatment for an ectopic pregnancy will not have access to care.

FACT: Treatment to remove an ectopic pregnancy is not prohibited under Florida law.

MYTH: Women who experience a premature rupture of membranes (PROM) will be sent home without care.

FACT: Florida law does not prohibit treatment for women who experience premature rupture of membranes (PROM) and as such, physicians in Florida should follow established standards of care regarding the most appropriate course of action for PROM. Florida law includes an exception to save the life of the mother or avert a serious risk of substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function. In addition to this exception, the law does not prohibit saving the life of the mother in medical emergencies.

MYTH: Women who experience the tragic loss of a pregnancy, commonly known as a miscarriage, will be denied treatment.

FACT: Florida law does not prohibit the removal of the pregnancy for women who experience a miscarriage in any circumstance.
