TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today's solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a "Holy Year," keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words "and of his kingdom there will be no end" were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ's love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptism's waters, we are anointed with chrism "as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king." This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service.

Holy Day of Obligation

Monday, December 8th is the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary
A Holy Day of Obligation.

Masses at 8:30am and 6:00pm (Bilingual).

Jesus, Remember Me

The man who hung on the cross next to Jesus asks him to "remember me when you come into your kingdom." Of all the people who took part in the crucifixion of Jesus, only this man sincerely acknowledges Jesus as King. Only he receives the promise of joining Jesus in paradise that very day. I wonder if he knew what Jesus' kingdom meant?

The second reading gives us a better idea of the extent of that kingdom. Paul uses images of things visible and invisible, of dominions, principalities, and powers. Notice one short phrase that appears six times in that reading: "all things." If Christ is King of all things, that includes our possessions. We might keep that in mind, not only when deciding how much we give to the poor or to the Church, but also how we use the things we own. The things we watch on TV, the foods we eat, the books we read—all are under Jesus' kingship. I might even drive more carefully if I remember that my car belongs to the Lord.

Even our life is under his reign. That can remind us to trust Jesus more, as well as to ask for the guidance of his Spirit in our decisions. If we let the Lord guide our lives, we know that anything that happens to us is either God's will or something that Jesus can lead us through, on our way to paradise.

Happy

Thanksgiving!

Angel Wreath Project

The San Pedro Women's Guild is beginning their Angel Wreath Project for 2025. Each year, through the generosity of our parishioners, many children receive Christmas gifts. If you wish to contribute, please place cash or checks made out to The San Pedro Women's Guild in the collection basket labeled "Angel Gift", or in the Giving Basket located to the left of the Alter. The Angel Project will run from November 8th through December 7th. Thank you for your continued support of this wonderful annual initiative. If you have any questions, please contact Toni Oyler at 301-466-3448. Thank you San Pedro Parish for your generosity!

Bible Study!

Join us beginning Thursday, December 4th at 10:30am in the classrooms as we begin the study of "Acts of the Apostles" Chapters 10-28. Last year we studied chapters 1-9 of "Acts". Don't feel you need to have attended last year to attend this year! "Acts" is a biblical study of the early days of the Christian church after Jesus's ascension, focusing on how the Holy Spirit empowered his followers to spread the message from Jerusalem to the Roman Empire. Come join us! If you have any questions please call Don at 262-853-7393.

The Relics of St. Thérèse of Lisieux Are Visiting Miami

The renowned reliquary of St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus arrived in the United States on October 1, 2025, and will make 40 stops across 10 states, concluding in Miami.

From the earliest centuries, the veneration of saints' relics have been a cherished tradition of our Catholic faith. While relics themselves hold no power, the Church teaches that God may work through them, drawing us into deeper faith through the intercession of His saints.

St. Thérèse, whom Pope St. Pius X once called "the greatest saint of modern times", promised before her death, "I will spend my Heaven doing good on earth." Her relics have inspired countless conversions, healings, vocations, and graces wherever they have traveled. We believe the same blessings await us. You are invited to experience the Lord's presence through this visit.

On December 4, 2025 the relics of St. Therese will be at Archbishop Coleman F. Carroll High School and from 3:00 to 9:00 p.m. Veneration of the relics is open to the public. If you would like to attend please RSVP using this link:
