TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Lenten journey is now complete, its mission of renewal and preparation to receive new life fulfilled. The call to worship the Risen Lord has been received, and we gather to experience together the consoling presence of Christ in word and sacrament. We are at our best today, crowded and cramped to be sure, but the fullest sign of who we are meant to be. Christ has claimed us in the waters of baptism, we have acquired wonderful companions, and together we can accomplish great things.

This is the day for rekindling the old flames of baptismal commitment, so we light the paschal candle, and by its light we make yet again the ancient promises to reject evil’s grip and empty promises. Today we do not recite the Creed, but respond with one voice to age-old questions. New life has to be nurtured, both the life of the newly baptized and the renewed life of those who have passed through Lent’s refining prayer, fasting, and giving alms. At any Mass during the next fifty days, you may be surprised by grace and splashed by water!

Easter Prayer

Lord of Easter’s Promise,
I live in faith of the resurrection,
but such is the nature of my faith that so much of me remains entombed.
Break open the tomb.
Where I’ve buried my compassion,
break open the tomb.
Where I’ve buried my sense of mercy,
break open the tomb.
Where I’ve buried my humility,
break open the tomb.
Where I’ve buried my love for my heavenly Father, break open the tomb.
Where I’ve buried my sense of joy,
break open the tomb.
Where I’ve buried my willingness to forgive,
break open the tomb.
Lord, in you I’ve found a Savior no grave can withstand.
Help me to roll away this stone and find the miracle of new life that I may live more fully in your saving grace.
Amen

Believing Is Seeing

You’ve heard the saying “Seeing is believing.” Today’s first reading seems to say just the opposite. You might think that when Jesus rose from the dead, everyone would see him. Yet Peter says that he was only visible to some of the disciples. Even they did not immediately see him. The first thing they saw was the empty tomb, with burial cloths lying on the ground. They may have thought that if his enemies had stolen Jesus’ body, they would not have removed the burial cloths; touching a corpse would have made them unclean.

So it seems the empty tomb helped them to believe, and believing enabled them to see the Lord. The exception to this may be Thomas, who said he would not believe until he saw and touched Jesus’ risen body. Yet when he does see the Lord, Jesus himself declares that believing is primary when he blesses those who have not seen but still believe (John 20:31).

What does this mean for us? Jesus seems to be hidden again. Yet we say that he is present in the sacraments; Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation show that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit live in us. So perhaps we just need to believe in order to see him. Mother Teresa could do it. She said she was amazed at the love she felt when she saw Jesus in the poor and the dying people of Calcutta. Maybe we need to grow in faith so that we can see Jesus in the poor, the dying, the people who annoy us, even our enemies.

Support The ABCD

On this joyous Easter Sunday, we celebrate the glorious resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. His triumph over death brings us hope, renewal, and the promise of eternal life. As we embrace this season of new beginnings, we are reminded of our call to live out His love and compassion in the world. Just as Christ’s resurrection brings new life, your support brings hope, healing and transformation to the lives of those we serve. Donate Today, visit www.sanpedroparish.org, click the WeShare icon, contact the San Pedro Parish office at 305.852.5372 or utilize the new “Text-To-Give” program by texting “Pedro” to 833-336-9083
